It's "OK" to be different
By Angie Erickson
Suggested ages: 9th grade +

- 1) In reading Angie's story, what surprises you? What does not surprise you?
- 2) Why do you think the author wrote this? What is she trying to tell us?
- 3) Do you think the author dislikes the fact that she has a disability?
- 4) How can we apply the lessons from here to our everyday life?
- 5) What does it seem like her attitude is now and how has it changed from when she was younger?
- 6) What is her message to parents?
- 7) How do you think we can each help to spread her message through NAIM: North American Inclusion Month?
