

North American Inclusion Month

NAIM

BUILDING AN INCLUSIVE JEWISH COMMUNITY

You Are Special

By Max Lucado

(In order to use these questions you must purchase You Are Special by Max Lucado)

ISBN: 1400304148

http://www.amazon.com/You-Are-Special-Lucados-Wemmicks/dp/1400304148/ref=sr_l_l?ie=UTF8&s=books&qid=1261067973&sr=1-1
Suggested age: Kindergarten + highly recommended reading for any classroom or home

Discussion Questions

- 1) What do you think the gray dots are really supposed to be?
- 2) What character do you like in this book the best and why?
- 3) Why is Eli the Woodcarver sad about how the wooden people are treating each other?
- 4) How do you think Punchinello feels about his gray dots? Why does having the “most” gray dots make him so sad?
- 5) What is the advice Eli, the woodcarver gives to Punchinello? Why do you think Eli, the woodcarver’s advice changes things for Punchinello?
- 6) What does this teach us about how we treat each other?
- 7) What is a small thing we can each do to make a big difference in other people’s lives?
- 8) Is it good to always care about what other people think? Please discuss
- 9) Is it good to never care about what other people think? Please discuss.
- 10) Can you connect anything from the Torah to this story?
- 11) How does this piece relate to the message of NAIM: North American Inclusion Month

For more information contact:
Yachad, The National Jewish Council for Disabilities

